

A world map visualization showing urban areas in yellow against a dark blue background. The yellow areas are concentrated in North America, Europe, and East Asia, with more fragmented and less dense clusters in South America, Africa, and Australia. The map uses a pseudo-cylindrical projection.

Urban Areas of the World

derived from 2002–2003 MODIS data at 1 km resolution

Visualization by Cédric Scherer